

United Way of Chatham County

The faces of Chatham...

United Way of Chatham County helps one in every three Chatham County residents. We fund 20 nonprofit agencies in Chatham County that provide critical human services to residents in need.

These are the faces of the people you have helped in your community. Your donation makes a difference in their lives and the lives of others. Give where your gift counts and support your local United Way!